REQUEST GRANTED.

Time is excluded until October 10, 2024, under the Speedy Trial Act, on the request of the Government and with the consent of the defendants. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by the exclusion outweigh the best interests of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial in that it will permit the parties time to continue negotiations towards a potential resolution or, in the alternative, to continue to prepare for trial. 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(A).

9/18/2024 SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Re: United States v. Eustate Espinal, et al., 23 Cr. 577 (LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

It has come to the Government's attention that because the conference schedule in the above-captioned matter has changed several times, time has been excluded only through today, September 16, 2024, even though the next conference is scheduled for October 10, 2024. Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that time be excluded between today and October 10, 2024. Discussions between the Government and defense counsel are ongoing and such an exclusion will provide the parties with an opportunity to negotiate a pretrial resolution of the case.

Counsel for each of the defendants has consented to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
